

TEENS SOCIAL 4 INCLUSION #T4SI

Teens for Social Inclusion is a Volunteer Ambassador Program created by Georgia Moran (Notre Dame Class of 2018). The program buddies middle and high school students with children with special needs at events and playdates for Inclusion Matters by Shane's Inspiration. The goal of the program is to educate teens to see beyond differences and include everyone.

Help Stop Bullying

Children with disabilities are 60% more likely to be involved in bullying.

Volunteer Opportunities

Make a difference for a child with special needs.

If you would like to be a part of Teens for Social Inclusion or start a #T4SI Club at your school, please contact Marci Moran at 818.988.5676 or email marci@inclusionmatters.org.

Schools that currently have #T4SI Clubs include: Notre Dame High School, Alemany High School, Louisville High School, Cross Roads High School and Cross Roads Middle School.

Inclusion Matters by Shane's Inspiration is an international non-profit organization based in Los Angeles, dedicated to creating social inclusion for children with disabilities through inclusive playgrounds and educational programs that unite children of ALL abilities.
