Education: For 23 years, Together, We Are Able, the education program provided free-of-charge by Inclusion Matters by Shane's Inspiration, offers powerful, life-changing lessons for students with and without disabilities. It teaches character development skills that address the core issue of exclusion and bullying of children with disabilities in the school environment by bringing students of all abilities together through transformative, play-based social/emotional learning (SEL). The program has served more than 60,000 students in over 275 schools since its inception and reaches over 3,000 students in the Los Angeles region annually.

The program includes the following steps:

Step 1: A 60-minute classroom conversation explores how students define and perceive disabilities. Through a combination of activities, students gain a new awareness of the common ground they share with their peers with disabilities as well as real-world tools on how to engage with children who have cognitive/sensory/physical/communication differences.

Step 2: Participating students with and without disabilities are paired at an Inclusion Matters playground in Los Angeles or on their school campus for interaction and play. This gives them the chance to learn from and with each other, overcoming misconceptions and strengthening social/emotional skills through play. Locally, in Los Angeles, the organization supports the cost of bus transportation for the field trips for public schools that serve children with complex disabilities, which can be a significant barrier to participation for them.

Step 4: Their team provides additional support via professional development, inclusion planning, and facilitating inclusive recess events to continue the interaction throughout the school year. Over 8,000 teachers, parents and education professionals have been trained by their team.

The program has been replicated in the U.S. and as far away as Ecuador. Program milestones include:

•2012: A teacher's guide and training video were released online, reaching 67 countries. The resources include:

oStep-by-step instructions for facilitating the 3-step program

oA detailed inclusive play guide for the interactive play events oA modular education DVD that shows a day-in-the life of 3 students with students with disabilities oSupplemental literacy support to continue the inclusion conversation

oA 60-minute, modular video training

•2022/2026: A university inclusion training program was launched in partnership with the US Embassy & Consulate in Ecuador, reaching over 1,900 university students, professors, and practicing teachers and 5,000 children throughout the country. •2023/2026: Via a partnership with the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD), the organization continues to co-host the largest Inclusive Schools Week celebration in LAUSD, an annual, national celebration held during the first week of December. During the past three years, over 200 Pre-K-12 schools have participated. The weeklong series of events feature inclusion celebrations on campuses that vary from adaptive sports, Paralympic athlete presentations, to the arts and beyond. The organization has directly facilitated inclusion for over 2,500 students during those events. This initiative has parlayed into partnerships that expand mission impact through increased services, community/school donations, corporate sponsors, and much more.

•2024-2026: The organization developed Inclusive STEPS: an early childhood inclusion training program. The self-paced, online course gives educators tools to facilitate inclusive social/emotional learning through play, serving a growing population of young students with disabilities. The course was launched in August 2024 and has had over 200 participants engaged to date. Thanks to a partnership with Lakeshore Learning, educators can access interactive social/emotional learning toys and books. In addition, via a partnership with the Dell Pro Bono Grant Program, Dell employees created an outreach strategy that will allow the initiative to scale up statewide throughout California in 2026. With the guidance of key Board Members, Inclusive STEPS will be implemented throughout school districts and local education agencies via a Google Ad grant program, featured speaking engagements at conferences, and continued outreach.
